5 Mandatory Condition #1: You must not commit another federal, state or local crime.

Supporting Evidence: Jacob Littlebull is considered to be in violation of his conditions of supervised release by violating local laws, being arrested and charged with malicious mischief and liquor violation-minor, on or about April 12, 2025.

On April 12, 2025, around 2:34 a.m., Wapato Police Department (WPD) officers were dispatched to a building across from the homeless shelter in Wapato, Washington, in response to reports of a group of people vandalizing a building. When WPD officers arrived on the scene, dispatch advised the reporting party was watching the group via the cameras at the shelter. It appeared six people were carving something into a large electrical box.

Upon examination of the scene, WPD officers could see what appeared to be fresh graffiti on a large electrical box/panel on the wall of the building. The letters “FTP” could be seen in large print, along with a much smaller writing. WPD officers reviewed the footage which showed Mr. Littlebull walk up to the wall and appear to do the smaller writing on the box.

Several of the males were enrolled members of nationally recognized Indian Tribes. WPD officers requested that Yakama Nation Tribal Police (YNTP) be dispatched to the scene. The YNTP officers took Mr. Littlebull into custody and subsequently transported him to the Yakama Nation Tribal Jail.

At the time of this petition, the charge remains pending.

On April 12, 2025, YNTP officers conducted a Breathalyzer test on Mr. Littlebull. He provided a preliminary breath test with results of 0.16 percent of blood alcohol content. Subsequently, he was booked into the Yakama Nation Tribal Jail.

The U.S. Probation Office respectfully recommends the Court issue a warrant requiring the defendant to appear to answer to the allegations contained in this petition.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.
